

CRC Fall 2008 Graduate School Workshop Series

Because a Bachelors is not ENOUGH!

Come join us for our 2nd Annual
The Experiences of Chicanas and Latinas
in Graduate School

Thursday,
November 20, 2008

UH - 252

@ 7 p.m.

For More Information:

Chicana & Chicano
Resource Center

Pollak Library South 171

Phone: 714 - 278 - 2537
E-mail: crc@fullerton.edu

The Chicana & Chicano Resource Center, along with the College of Humanities and Social Sciences and the Chicano/a Studies Department, are coordinating a panel for students interested in pursuing a graduate education. The focus of this panel is to expose the voices of Chicana and Latina women that have received a graduate degree. Panel participants will expose undergraduate to the realities of being a Chicana and Latina in various graduate programs.

Speakers Included:

- | | |
|----------------------------------|---|
| Dr. Patricia Perez | Assistant Professor, Chicano/a Studies Department, CSUF |
| Dr. Roberta Espinoza | Assistant Professor, Sociology Department, CSUF |
| Dr. Sandra Perez-Linggi | Associate Professor, Spanish Department, CSUF |
| Dr. Rosario Ordonez-Jasis | Associate Professor, Reading Department, CSUF |

Fruit Bar and Beverages will be provided!
Everyone is Welcomed!

