

Pronoun Worksheet

In the following sentences, circle the correct pronoun.

1. Anyone who would invest in such a stupid idea should have (his, their, his or her) head examined.
2. Many of the jobs at the factory that were advertised were not filled because (it, they) required experience and a set of tools.
3. Either the fumes from the chemicals or the smoke (is, are) suspected of being the reason for his illness.
4. The manufacturer said that (this, these) kind of pants should be sold at a higher price.
5. The orchestra was known for (its, their) records.
6. Every job applicant should begin a record of (her, their, his or her) experience and previous employment.
7. The dog wagged its tail at Jeff and (I, me), but we were afraid to open the gate and walk into the yard.
8. Many people are surprised when they hear (themselves, themselves) on a tape recording.
9. Nobody was more surprised than (I, me) at the outcome of the election.
10. Marty is angry at (himself, himself) for forgetting his camera.
11. Margie and (he, him) are distantly related to each other.
12. The clerk at the hardware store gave George and (me, myself) some ideas for refinishing the cabinet doors.
13. (That, These) kind of grass is often used on golf courses.
14. My brother and (I, me) were planning to go to the movies, but we had to cancel our plans.
15. (I, Me), my cousin, and my friend took the bus cross-town.
16. (Us, We) students had a blast at the pep rally.
17. We'll have to divide this candy between you and (I, me).
18. John explained the test results to (she, her).
19. (Him, He) and Kenneth are going to take Helen and (I, me) to the play.
20. It was (she, her) who sent the lovely flowers to me for my birthday.