

Fullerton International Resources for Schools and Teachers

FIRST Summer Institute

July 21—25, 2008

8:30 am — 2:30 pm

Teachers will receive a stipend of $300 and materials worth $200 upon completion of the program

Teachers will gain a knowledge and understanding of Mexico from the ancient Mayan & Aztec empires to modern developments and challenges of the 21st century. Through active learning, use of primary sources, scholar presentations, & authentic voices, teachers will experience an interdisciplinary immersion into Mexico's history, geography and culture based on CA Standards from grades 7—12.

Mexico in a Changing World

To reserve your place, complete the attached registration form and email it to linlee@aol.com

The grant is funded for 20 participants so sign up fast!

Connie DeCapite, Director

Ana Mitchell, Program Coordinator

Fullerton International Resources for Schools & Teachers

California State University, Fullerton

714-345-4877 - <http://FIRST.fullerton.edu>