

2008-2009 California Pre-Doctoral Program

Program Benefits

- Travel funds to visit U.S. Ph.D.-granting institutions and attend professional meetings.
- Opportunity for a fully-funded Summer Internship to participate in doctoral-level research.
- Funds for research, professional memberships, publications, school application fees, test fees.

Eligibility

- Junior, senior, or graduate CSUF students currently enrolled for Spring 2008 and who will be enrolled for at least one term during the academic year 2008-09.
- Students interested in obtaining doctoral degrees.
- Students who have experienced economic and educational disadvantages.
- U.S. citizens or permanent residents.
- Commitment from a faculty sponsor to facilitate the student's academic plans is required.

Application Deadline: Friday, March 21, 2008

Submit one original and three copies of your application, including an original and three copies of all non-CSUF transcripts, to the Graduate Studies Office, MH-103. Undergraduate and Graduate Transcripts from ALL institutions must be included.

(Allow 2 to 3 weeks to complete application packet.)

For application packets and fellowship information contact:
Graduate Studies, MH-103
Phone: (714) 278-2618