

Stan Breckenridge
in Concert

Stan Breckenridge has a wealth of experience as an academician and professional musician. His knowledge in music education, performance (voice and piano), and music consulting and development has taken him to events in Hungary, France, Poland, and cities throughout the U.S. Performing professionally as a singer and pianist abroad and domestically for many years, he has delighted audiences in Western and Eastern Europe, Japan, Hong Kong, and many cities throughout the U.S. and various events and venues in the U.S. including The Dorothy Chandler Pavilion, The Hollywood Bowl, and Capitol Records.

He is the author of African American Music for Everyone, which is now in its second edition. The book endeavors to reveal the importance of African American music within a cultural context, its contribution within the scope of American music, its vitality within world cultures, and its significance and contribution to music education. Dr. Breckenridge traveled to Poland in September 2005 to share his expertise with students at Marie Curie Sklodowska University during a semester as a Fulbright Scholar in southeast Poland.

Dr. Breckenridge wants CSUF students in Afro-Ethnic studies to have an opportunity to experience other cultures through study abroad experiences. All proceeds from the underwriting packages will go to study abroad student scholarships.

Saturday, October 25
Meng Hall,
Cal State Fullerton

8:00 p.m.

All proceeds from the underwriting opportunities will support study abroad scholarships for students majoring or minoring in Afro-Ethnic Studies at Cal State Fullerton.
