

Free Public Lecture

PEACE & MUSLIMS from the Qur'anic Perspective

Some questions to address include:

- What is the status of peace in Islam? - How does the Qur'an present peace?
- Are there any sociopolitical imperatives for peace in Islam?
- Is the application of peace verses in the Qur'an temporary or permanent?

Presented by:

Dr. Zakyi Ibrahim

Assistant Professor of Comparative Religion, CSU Fullerton;
Editor, American Journal of Islamic Social Sciences (AJISS).

Thursday

April 14

11:30-12:45

TSU Alvarado

Dr. Zakyi Ibrahim teaches courses in all aspects of Islam, including Qur'anic studies, History and Development of Islamic Thought, and Classical and Contemporary Islam.

He holds a Ph.D. in Islamic Studies from the Institute of Islamic Studies at McGill University, Montreal, Canada (2002).

Sponsored by the Comparative Religion Student Association.

April 14, 2011. For more information contact Dr. Paul Levesque at 657-278-5902