

CALL FOR PAPERS!

RICHARD M. NIXON PRESIDENTIAL LIBRARY AND MUSEUM

The Cal State Fullerton Politics, Administration, & Justice Division is proud to sponsor the first Student Research Conference on Richard Nixon and his era to be held Friday, April 27, 2012.

Southern California undergraduate and graduate students in humanities and social sciences disciplines are invited to submit proposals for papers, posters, or other media by March 2nd, 2012.

Projects may address any topic regarding the social, economic, political, and cultural aspects of Richard Nixon's presidency and his times. They may also reflect on the dilemmas of presenting to the public topics related to Nixon and his era.

For more information visit the conference website:

<http://hss.fullerton.edu/nixonconference/>
or email Dr. Spitzer, conference organizer, sspitzer@fullerton.edu