AKD: A

ASA: A

Acacia: B

AREA: A

ASSA: A

French: A

Geography: B

PAT: B

LSPA: B

LSSA: A

Philosophy: A

TESOL: A

PDSA: A

Discussion about what date to hold Symposium: Monday or Thursday?

Monday – More students on campus, perhaps higher turnout

Thursday – More time to prepare, promoting during the week.

Phi Alpha Theta motions to table discussion on dates, AKD seconds.

8. Old Business

A. Memorandum

Geography Club motions to open line item A, LSSA seconds.

Include information on Milo outing students to a large audience.

Philosophy moves to amend the sentence as “Additionally, Yiannopoulos has publically released personal information of students without their consent, jeopardizing their safety.”, ASA seconds.

ASA motions to Liz Sanchez, SQE (member of the audience).

Liz: the name of the senator from UC Berkeley was Juniper.

Discussion: adding specific examples of students who had their information released without their consent.

AKD motions to Liz. Just be cautious about being too detailed with the sentence

Vote to remove the “For example” sentence and to cite previous sentence.

B. Discussion of outreach and supporting other councils at large about supporting the Block Party against Milo Yiannopolous.
ASA opens to open line item B, AKD seconds.
Anthropology: enough cannot be said about Milo, but that is a part of activism: repeating the same thing over and over until enough people understand the message. CAPS isn't enough as they are stretched thin, thus the Block Party is needed. Reaching out to other councils is important.

ASA motions that the H&SS ICC council openly support other councils and organizations on campus who need help with drafting their memorandum.

ASA motions to discuss the section portion of line item B, AKD seconds.

Information on getting involved with the block party: csufsqe@gmail.com

Vote on supporting the block party counter-event
YES: AKD, ASA, Acacia, AREA, AMST, French, Geography, Phi Alpha Theta, LSPA, Liberal Studies, Philosophy, TAC
