Abled advocates- Know your Rights workshop in Humanities 125 on Nov. 7th at 4pm

- 1st town hall yesterday we are given this info, hold student leaders and ourselves accountable, it's unfortunate that there weren't familiar faces there, we had the info so why weren't we there? Take advantage of the positions we hold and the info that we receive, we could voice our concerns if time is an issue, it was disappointing and appalling that student leaders weren't there
 - Connie—could there be multiple ones? Maybe the time conflicts with people's schedules, we could give this feedback to the liaisons

Philosophy: Monday at 7pm in Hum 126, there will be a discussion on Light in the Dark, by Gloria Anzaldua, it's about intersection, trauma, ambiguity, and personal growth

ASSA: Thank you for coming to the movie night

Connie: go out to vote, do your research, read propositions carefully

- PSSA: do your research but if worse comes to worse, you do not have to vote
